

“No Other Name” and “No Judgments” Affidavit Submitted for Clearance of Title—Exceptions Raised

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss:
COUNTY OF)

 , being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That she resides at and is married to .

That she has not been known by any other name, married or single, during the past ten years, except:

Deponent further states that there are no judgments of any kind against her in any court of this State, or the United States, and that no proceedings in Bankruptcy have ever been instituted by or against deponent, nor has deponent at any time made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, and during her ownership she has done nothing to encumber the premises in any way whatsoever.

There are no judgments, Bankruptcies, Federal Tax Liens, Environmental Control Board liens, Parking Violation Judgments or Transit Adjudication Board liens against me. That the Judgments at EXCEPTION # are not against my name or against me individually. I am not the same person named in those judgements nor have I ever resided at those named addresses.

That I make this affidavit knowing that Agency Name and Chicago Title Insurance Company shall be relying upon the truth of statements in issuing it’s policies for the abovementioned premises.

Sworn to me this day
of , 20

Distributed by

Chicago Title Insurance Company